Message From The Chairman.... Look around for the wondrous things

A young man and his girlfriend got married. It was a grand celebration. All of their friends and families assembled to watch the pleasant ceremony and to participate in festivities. Everyone had a truly delightful time. The bride was captivating in her white wedding gown and the groom was very vivacious in his black tuxedo. Everyone admitted that it was a perfect match. A few months later, the wife comes to the husband with a proposal: "I read in a magazine, a while ago, about how we can further strengthen our marriage," she mooted at the outset. "Each of us will note down a list of the things that we find a bit unpleasant with the other person. Then, we can talk about how we can fix them together and make our lives happier together," she proposed. The husband agreed, so each of them went to a separate room in the house and thought of the things that disturbed them about the other. They continued to think about this question for the whole day and noted down what came up in the mind. The next morning, at the breakfast table, they decided that they would review their lists. "Let me start with my list," offered the wife. She took out her list. It had many items on it enough to fill three pages, in fact. As she started reading the list of the minor annoyances, she noticed that tears were starting to appear in her husband's eyes. "What's wrong with you?" she asked. "Nothing," the husband replied, "you may go ahead with your list." The wife continued to read until she had completed all the three pages. She then placed her list on the table and folded her hands on top of it. "Now, you read your list and then we'll talk about the things on both of our lists," she said with a sense of achievement. Quietly the husband stated in a low voice "I don't have anything on my list. I think that you are perfect the way that you are. I don't want you to change anything about you for my sake. You are lovely and wonderful and I wouldn't dream to try and change anything about you", he asserted. The wife, touched by his candidness and the depth of his love for her and his acceptance of her in total, turned her head and started weeping. In life, there are enough times when we are disappointed, depressed and annoyed. We don't really have to go looking for them. We have a wonderful world that is full of beauty, light and promise. Why waste time in this world looking for the bad, disappointing, disturbing or annoying when we can look around us, and see the wondrous things before us? Always remember that you can never find a perfect partner to love you the way you wanted, only a person who is willing to love you more than what you are. Someone who will accept you for what you can and can't be. And that is even better than perfect.

Pilgrimage to Kailash Mansarovar

The majestic pick of Mountain Kailash is the abode of Lord Shiva. The beauty of the mountain is mesmerizing. Ramayan says, there is no mountain like The Himalays for in it is Kailash. The pilgrimage path purifies the heart as the journey has a transformative power and the "soul is enraptured, feasted and fed" after the tremendous hardships of the journey. One feels as if one is in heaven upon earth when one reaches there.

Regarded as the brain child of Brahma. Mansarovar is the oldest lake known to mankind and is stretched around 120kms. It is also believed that the water of the lake is most pure on the earth. The crystal clear lake along with its beaches covered with white sands and beautiful pebbles creates a soothing harmony and resonance which is unique in the world. During morning the water mirrors beautiful blue colour. The Tibetans do not put their feet in the Manas water. They consider the water so sacred !
